Today's Program

The District 5010 theme is Lead the Way. President Carol Howerton invites us to look at our Club Leadership Plan and consider the new committee structure shown to the left. This evening's program is our first 2007 Assembly.

Future Meetings

July 6 There are leadership opportunities for all of us as we look at the new club structure and consider how we can contribute to Girdwood Rotary in 2007.

July 13 Colonel Tom Lawrence from the Alaska Air National Guard and Rich Owens from Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve on flights to Afghanistan.

July 20 Girdwood Weed Pull with Jonnie Lazarus or Bettie Charnon: Meet at the Jade Shop as we combat a serious problem in Girdwood and Alaska.

July 27 Andrew Van Chau from BP will discuss the gas pipeline and related tax issues.

August 3 Dr. Cherie Northon and Dr. Thom Eley on the Anchorage Waterways Council's mapping project (including Glacier Creek).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-Rotary means leadership. We have opportunities to chair committees and run our club effectively.

-Next month will be Colonel Tom Lawrence on the 144th's Afghan airlift. This will be the lead squadron next year. Rich Owens from Employer Support of the Guard has arranged this presentation.

-We all need to sign up for the Forest Fair Parking Lot duty. This was a successful fund raiser for us last year and will be this year, too. Sign-up on the website.

-Bird to Gird was listed recently as a National Recreation Trail as mentioned in the June 16 edition of the Anchorage Daily News. This could help our fund raising bike rally next year.
