Last Week's Program

George, Larry, Ken H., David, and Carol attended the all-Anchorage meeting run by DG Gayle Knepper last Tuesday. Gayle pointed out that she joined Rotary because she was asked. We all did. Let's ask our Girdwood friends to join us in Girdwood Rotary- more than once.

Future Meetings

September 7 Our Highway Clean-up will be combined with a weed pull on September 7. Please bring gloves and boots. Meet at FOREST SERVICE

September 14 Polly Smith, Executive Director of the Anchorage Literacy Project, on literacy in Anchorage, Alaska, and the U.S. (in honor of International Literacy Day September 8).

September 21 Senator Con Bunde on the gasoline and the recent special sessions. (Con may have to be on Juneau for another special session and his presentation may be postponed).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Discounted ski passes are available now through the end of this month from Alyeska.
- Ken is better, and so is Darrel! Go, you two!
- Bob Weel's Polio Plus Team is going February 11-17 to India. February 15 (next week) is the last date you can sign up for the inoculation effort. Cost is $4,000 for a great, ennobling experience-one of Rotary's signal successes.
- Northern Stars Talent Show by Anchorage Downtown, October 22, Discovery Theatre
- Lang Van Dommelen will represent us at the Youth Exchange Orientation September 8-10
- Former Girdwood Rotarian Russ Walker is leading a Rotary project for our Club at the Kisii Children's Home in Kenya. Russ is our favorite Alaska Walker.
- We need 15 paying diners for our club meeting meals at the hotel. The next quarterly dinner payments are October 1-December 31.
- Let's have a potluck on October 12 for Vocational Month. We will have four short member talks on professions.
