Tonight's Program

Members Anne Hays and Hank Hosford will do the vocational talks this week as the key piece of our Rotary Vocational Month recognition.

Future Meetings

- October 25 A celebration of our vocational emphasis in Rotary.
- November 1 Program change: Larry Daniels reviews the Resort Master Plan at our Rotary Meeting.
- November 8 The Petroleum Profits Tax continues to be analyzed. Lana Johnson has an update on this process for Alaska.
- November 15 Girdwood resident Jay Wenger will present on the Centers for Disease Control and their cooperation with Rotary on the eradication of polio plus the work he did in India for 11 years.
- November 29 Mike Loso, Alaska Pacific University, on his trek across the glacier field from Girdwood to Eklutna and the retreat of glacial ice in Alaska.
- December 6 In celebration of the triumphant effort to restore the Roundhouse, Lana will provide some of the details of the campaign.
- December 13 (Tentative) Mike Hawker on the special session and his work on the Girdwood Community Center.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Mary Rohlfing, Kathleen Madden, and Rotary East welcome us to their AERIE meetings on Wednesdays between 5:30 and 6:30 at the Hooper Bay Café in the Hilton Hotel. On November 7th, the orientation will be on the Rotary Foundation, December 5th on Family Month, and January 9th on Rotary Awareness. AERIE brings basic knowledge of Rotary to new and existing members in an informal setting.
- Jennifer Overcast and Cece are considering service projects. If you have an idea, please let them know.
- Thanksgiving is coming up- Basket packing is probably Saturday, November 17 (ask Cece or Jennifer O.).
- Ginny Grupp graciously agreed to present at a later date so that Larry Daniels can cover the basics (and considerable detail, too) of the Alyeska Master Plan. It was important to get this presentation in before December 10 when the public comment period ends on the changes.
