made available courtesy of Chief Chadwick). There will be from seven to ten baskets. Many of the local organizations such as the Scouts are participating this year.

- Jen Wingard told us that the Christmas Fireside will be held either at the Gellerts home or the Hatch Wingard home on a date to be determined.
- President Mike briefed us on the need for volunteering for one of the office positions – elections are at our annual meeting on December 3rd.
- President Elect George briefed us on PET's training next year to be held in Seattle. The club pays expenses for the President Elect and President Nominee to attend this fun and informative training.
- President Elect George briefed us on the status of the Mabadu's new home which they will move into the last part of this month. He also told us that furniture and other items were needed. More information will be forthcoming as it is available.
- Jen Weits told us about a five year old child that has terminal cancer and is not expected to live beyond the holidays. His only request for Christmas was for cards. Many of those present signed cards which Ron will FedEx to Jen's friend for their early Christmas next week.
- Lana announced that Girdwood 2020 will have an event early next year featuring champion athletes.

Fun Times: Something FUN's in the Air – I know - It's all of you!!!!

Happy Bucks: Make the pitcher Happy – We didn't pass the hat tonight because the pitcher was full of spirits.

Adjourn: A fun time wa had by all and although the meeting was not actually adjourned people began to leave about 8:30 or so – so I guess we'll call adjournment about 8:30..
